How the hell do you guys pay off debt? It's always hard for me to get started. I have been told to write down everything I spend - down to the cent. This is a little crazy. What's the right amount to start out with? I feel like I start off good - I pay off some debt and get even more, it feels good. But then when I stop paying it off my finances look like they are back at the start point. Is there anything I'm missing? I have a feeling there is. When you are in credit card debt you have to pay off as much as you can and use the credit card only when you have the money. Once you have paid off the debt you should have 0 or less credit card debt. If you have a mortgage you should also be using the mortgage to pay as much as you can
