Sergio Mendez Ernesto "Sergio" Mendez (; born c. 1960) is an Argentine-American convicted of murdering 33-year-old Briana Nettles. Mendez, a resident of Boca Raton, Florida, is currently serving a life sentence in prison. He was convicted in the double murder of Briana Nettles and her 6-year-old daughter Kiara Alexander in Boca Raton on May 3, 1994. In 2009, he was given the death penalty, but was later commuted to life in prison. Murder On the night of May 2, 1994, Mendez put a .25 caliber handgun to the head of his live-in girlfriend, Briana Nettles, 30 years his junior. He also forced her two small daughters, Kiara Alexander and Khaliyah Alexander, to lie face down on the floor. When he turned around, the girls were crying. Mendez later fled with their two other children, whose ages are not known. Police eventually found the four children in a different house, living in squalid conditions, with no running water or electricity. Nettles' and Alexander's bodies were discovered on the morning of May 3 by two women cleaning their home. Kiara's feet and arm had been sliced off, and her daughter's body was covered in a trash bag. Both bodies had been shot several times. Police found a handgun near Nettles' body. The blood found at the scene matched
