How to say where does the corporate office of e.g. a company are located Let say, I'm a customer of an American company, and I want to ask their office, specifically the address of the corporate office of the company. The main question is, how to say where does the corporate office of e.g. a company are located? I am looking for something simpler than "where the corporate office of xxxx". A: This can be fairly ambiguous. In fact, depending on context, it can be a bit embarrassing. It seems like you're trying to do with [something] your company's corporate office. Not only that, but you want to know where the headquarters of the company is. You should be able to get the information you're looking for with the suffix -kyo (쿄) with the following: □□□□□□
