Twenty years ago, probably, he'd have been a swinger, but now he has a mortgage. And he wants to be a parent; so he saves a few bucks from teaching college to have a vasectomy. Thus begins one of the most frustrating stories in movies. When he gets the no-strings package from his doctor, he agrees to follow the doctor's bunch of rules as long as he can have fun. For six months, he doesn't stop to think he's missing out on something. Eventually, he discovers a sex pill that makes him change his lifestyle. Suddenly he's having sex every hour of the day, with new partners, and he's completely irresistible to women (his lowest test score, 5, is with the doctor's teeny bopper daughter). But it's not enough for him; he starts falling in love and wants a permanent relationship. Now he's having sex and love at the same time. It sounds ideal, but of course he then can't perform, thus the need to get off again. So he ups his dose. Oh, and having a kid at the same time only compounds his misery; he feels duped into having a baby by a woman he doesn't want to marry and a life he can never have. At the end, he's tried everything, from Viagra to none of your business parenthood, and he's on the verge of acquiring a permanent pack on his belt. (

The thing I love most about this game is that it's so random, because if you don't know the answer you just have to ask the internet. But even this I have to admit is not as bad as it sounds, because when you ask something, you will see for yourself what could it be. Therefore, in this game, there is no one answer that is correct. There are a lot of answers for each of the questions and if you are asking 'what does this character want in life' you might say that you want to be an actor, but that isn't the only answer. If you are asked what do you want to be in the future you might say that you are going to be a doctor or a scientist (amongst others), but that's not the only answer you could get. Once you are asked what you want in life, remember that you want to feel safe, happy, content. So to answer your question in a way that it is comprehensive, it would be 'something to do when I'm alone' Without further ado, here's what you will see on screen. They are random; you will never know what question you will have. If you wanna check the time, the user will be highlighted with a yellow background as shown: If you add time to the equation, you will see the time being used in a different way (from left to right): When the player clicks the time, the text of the highlighted player will change to this: What is the player that has clicked the answer? The bottom right corner will switch to the a player's image for easy identification I hope you have enjoyed what I have posted. I consider this game epic and sincerely hope that you enjoy it as much as I did. I also hope that you find this review helpful.
