I just coded a Bootstrap 4 modal to show a response before a user continues, and the problem is that I've multiple ajax requests being answered. I use a global variable to know if the modal should be displayed (or not) but I don't know how to make the modal show only once per request. JS

var isShowingModal;
$.ajax({ type: 'GET', url: req.url, success: function (data) { console.log(data); if(isShowingModal){ return; }else{ // code here isShowingModal = true; } } });
$(function(){ if (isShowingModal){ $('#myModal').modal('show'); }else{ setTimeout(function(){ isShowingModal = true; }, 2000); } });

This PowerPoint Add-In supports to disable one color in a slideshow to make the desktop transparent in slideshow with one slide. This is a one in a sense that one color in slideshow can be disabled. You need only to disable one color and the transparent slideshow will appear as the normal slideshow. If it is not combined with the slideshow, the color itself would appear to be disabled and the color could be changed. Usage: 1) Open PowerPoint. 2) From the animation section, click the Options button. 3) Select the Disallowed color and the Transparency option. 4) Press the OK button. The word "OK" is added to the slide. You'll see the PowerPoint interface. 5) Select the slide you want to make the color transparent and press the OK button. 6) Press the OK button again. 7) The setting is saved. After that, you can save a slide as a specific color by using this PowerPoint Add-in as the color of the slide is disallowed. 8) The Disallowed color of the slideshow will appear in the Options dialog box again. 9) Press the OK button and you will be finished. 10) If you wish to save a specific color as the color, please use the Add-In option on the add-in website. Please enjoy the PowerPoint slideshow. What's New In?

This app replaces the slide show background with a picture/video clip. Users can make any color transparent by clicking on the theme you like. Pros: Very easy to use. Simple and easy-to-locate new function. Multiple color support. Could be potentially useful in a business environment. Cons: Only one real function that is very limited. OfficeOne TransparentShow Download link: OfficeOne TransparentShow download site (Latest version) OfficeOne TransparentShow old download site (v1.1) Source Code: A: I've been looking for something like this (disable colours on specific slides) and this add-in works really well. It has many functions, the most important are: Allows you to 'lock' colours by clicking on any colour (currently only the slide background is clickable though) Allows you to select between any of the standard PowerPoint colours (currently the only colours available are those that appear in an RGB array) Uses transparency to 'push' your images and videos underneath your background slide and enable you to see the desktop and start the slideshow. It's at version 1.1, currently on version 1.2, but it's fairly stable and new features will be added to it. It would be really useful if you could give some feedback after you've tested it, like if it works flawlessly and in what circumstances it crashes. BTW: I found this add-in at neowin.net and, although the people there were somewhat rude, I like the add-in. WAUGAN WARRIORS! We are excited to see what the future brings
