Every member of our team (except Leo) has their favorite cat, so we decided to round up a few of our favorite creations from our team to celebrate our #catsoffaith day. It's because Leo's birthday was a few days before that, that we decided to give him a little bonus! Look out for a post in the near future featuring some collabs of our team's favorite macaroons. Gina & Chloe's darling inspiration for the day is leopard, and they decided to make a beautiful throw with gorgeous illustrations of these lovable and very furry felines. Can you even notice the gorgeous colors the illustrator used throughout the art? 15th instagram ever for Chloe And isn't her pick-a-clue for a clue because leopards are good at reading their surroundings ? Anina had her inspiration for this one drawn from the Bible... this little kitty is Leopold, and the story speaks for itself.. For Emily, who created this stunning art piece, she chose felines for the inspiration and created some amazing pieces of art! Here are a few photos from the project: The art-'n-ink café! Kitty...dense... I like tigers too! Look for more photos soon... And last but not least... our most amazing member that graces us with her delightful illustrations... It's difficult to pick our favorite one because they are all so amazing, BUT... here are some of our favorites. Her inspiration for this one is Louis XIV - King of France....awesome choice... Coyote... a very magical creature indeed, who is most-loved to the circus, and is a tender spirit who is loved by all... The illustration of this movie poster is one of Chloe's favorites for this project and they involved some of our members from our team to make this dream come true for all of you! Congrats to the team that made it possible to release this amazing movie poster! This year, we also introduced something special to our clients, so that it will attract your clients to yours for years to come-as a thank you to you, we will be sending you a gift from our team in France!
