Information Licence FAQ Lost Omens Azarketi Web Supplement On 26th March 2020, Lost Omens, RPG Magazine Award Winning Adventure came out with their latest supplement - Azarketi Web, which is free to Pathfinder Playtest players. In this essay, I will try to contextualise the Lost Omens: Azarketi Web campaign setting with the other supplements published by the same authors. So far, the following supplements have been published: Lost Omens The Book of Lost Omens contains three companions to Lost Omens: Azarketi Web (not available for Pathfinder playtest). Martin (co-author) Alexey Marks (co-author) The purpose of Lost Omens Azarketi Web was to create an immense campaign setting, full of content, adventure hooks, region-specific encounter elements, monsters, spells and artefacts. Where can you go in this vast landscape? How can you get access to all these wonders? "Follow the clues" was the answer, a great motto for the adventures of the Pathfinders. The answer was to get lost! At least, that was the original idea... Lost Omens Azarketi Web was created for the Pathfinder RPG first edition, but the theme and the setting can be adapted easily to a
