As a family that depends solely on social media for our support we've come to love reading, seeing, and viewing other families in similar situations. First, thank you to all of the new readers we've had the privilege of introducing to You Are A Baby! Please keep on reading and supporting the site! Please introduce yourself and share your baby's first month milestones. Hi, my name is Ashley and I am a 34-year-old father and a 29-year-old mother to a beautiful 2-month-old. We welcomed our sweet baby girl April 22nd, 2016 into our lives. She weighed 7 pounds, 1 ounce and was 21 inches long at birth. What was your reaction to the news that you were pregnant? I was shocked! There was never anything between us that would have suggested that things would work out the way that they did. But I knew she would be a blessing and wanted to tell a family member that I was aware of her before the surprise was over. Can you tell us about your pregnancy? (Note: if you chose not to share that information, you are free to disregard this question.) The beginning was a little odd. I felt pressure on my bladder, my heart raced, I had headaches, and I had a strange sensation in my legs. I didn't feel sick though. I found out that I was pregnant when my husband and I were in our second year of marriage. Did you have any doubts about being a single mom? My husband and I have been talking about having a baby for years now and there was never a point that I wondered if I could do it on my own. We both work full time and neither of us wanted to quit to be at home. I already put myself through all of the things c6a93da74d
